

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

The People of the State of California, by and through San Francisco City Attorney Dennis J. Herrera (“the People”) and Burger Bar San Francisco LLC (“Burger Bar”), do hereby enter into this Settlement Agreement and Release (the “Agreement”), with reference to the following facts:

Recitals

A. In 2009, 2010 and 2011, Burger Bar charged its customers a Health Care Surcharge of 3-3.5% of each check.

B. In 2013, Burger Bar cooperated fully with the City Attorney Office’s efforts to ascertain how much of the money Burger Bar collected from this surcharge was actually spent on health care for its employees. The parties determined that Burger Bar received more money from imposition of the Health Care Surcharge than it spent on health care for Covered Employees.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the promises, covenants, representations and warranties contained herein, and for good and valuable consideration given hereunder, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Effective Date

The effective date of this Agreement will be the date the Agreement is signed by all parties if on the same day or if on different dates then the last day signed by a party.

“Claimants” shall mean Covered Employees that were employed by Burger Bar in San Francisco during 2009, 2010 and/or 2011.

3. Payment to Compensate Claimants

3.1 Burger Bar shall make payments, by check, to the Claimants in the total amount of one hundred and twelve thousand and seven hundred and seventy dollars ($112,770) (“Settlement Amount”) to be delivered to the Claimants listed in Exhibit A in four installment payments, according to the following schedule:

- a. First Payment due within 90 days of the Effective Date of this Agreement,
- b. Second Payment due within 180 days of the Effective Date of this Agreement,
- c. Third Payment due within 270 days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, and
- d. Fourth Payment due within 360 days of the Effective Date of this Agreement.

The payments will be made in amounts, and according to the schedule, provided in Exhibit A, a completed version of which Burger Bar will submit to Deputy City Attorney Sara Eisenberg in excel format via email no later than 30 days after the Effective Date of this Agreement. Burger Bar shall make the installment payments in the following manner. For Claimants who are current employees, Burger Bar may deliver the payments in person or in the same manner that Burger Bar currently issues itemized pay statements. For Claimants who are former employees, Burger Bar will send the payments by certified mail to the Claimant’s last known address.

3.2 At the same time and in the same manner that it makes the installment payments to the Claimants as set forth in paragraph 3.1 above, Burger Bar shall also deliver a copy of the letter, attached as Exhibit B, to each Claimant.

3.3 Within ten (10) business days of delivering a payment to each Claimant as set forth in paragraphs 3.1 and 3.2 above, Burger Bar agrees to provide a copy of each check to Deputy City Attorney Sara Eisenberg at the address set forth below in paragraph 7. Burger Bar shall permit the Claimants sixty (60) days from the date of the issuance to cash the checks. After this sixty (60) day period, Burger Bar shall issue a stop-payment order for any un-cashed checks.

3.4 Within fifteen (15) days following each sixty (60) day period set forth in paragraph 3.3, Burger Bar will send via certified first class mail the following to Deputy City Attorney Sara Eisenberg at the address set forth below in paragraph 7:

- b. a list of the uncashed checks, and
- c. a check, made payable to the "The San Francisco City Attorney's Office" in the total amount of the un-cashed checks. The San Francisco City Attorney's Office will use the money to fund future enforcement of the HCSO and other consumer protection laws.

3.5 Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any payment sent by certified mail to a Claimant who is a former employee is returned to Burger Bar by the United States Post Office as undeliverable or is not cashed within the 60 day period set forth in paragraph 3.3, Burger Bar shall not send further payments to the last mailing address provided to Burger Bar by the former employee. Burger Bar shall hold future payments to that Claimant for 60 days from the date of each subsequent installment payment. If the Claimant contacts Burger Bar to provide a new mailing address during that 60 day period, Burger Bar shall send the payment to the address provided by the Claimant. If the Claimant does not contact Burger Bar to provide a new mailing address during that 60 day period, Burger Bar shall include the entire amount due to the Claimant in that installment payment in the amount remitted to "The San Francisco City Attorney's Office" as provided in paragraph 3.4(c).

3.6 Nothing in this Agreement shall in any way affect the obligations under state and federal tax laws of Burger Bar with respect to payment to the Claimants identified in Exhibit A.

4. Good Faith Compliance With the Employer Spending Requirement of the HCSO

4.1 Burger Bar will ensure that the terms of its Health Reimbursement Accounts ("HRAs") allow employees to receive reimbursement for all medical and dental expenses that qualify for reimbursement under Internal Revenue Code Section 213, for the employee and for all of the employee's qualified dependents. This change will be retroactive to April 1, 2013.

4.2 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as precluding Burger Bar from complying with the employer spending requirement of the HCSO by making payments to the City to fund employee participation in Healthy San Francisco or by purchasing health insurance for its employees.

4.4 The requirements of this section shall remain in effect as long as Burger Bar's restaurants remain in business in San Francisco.

5. Releases

5.1 In consideration of the payments and promises set forth herein, the People, and the City for themselves and their agents, servants, employees, representatives, assigns, joint venturers, partners and attorneys, and each of them, do hereby absolutely, fully and forever release, relieve, waive, relinquish and discharge Burger Bar and each of its current, former and future parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, divisions, subdivisions, departments, or other organizational units of any kind doing business under their own names or doing business under any other names, any entity now or in the past controlled by, controlling, or under common control with any of the foregoing, and each of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, owners, partners, joint venturers, principals, trustees, creditors, agents, servants, employees, insurers, representatives, predecessors, successors, assigns, and attorneys, of and from any and all actual or potential claims or actions that could have been asserted arising from any alleged violations of HCSO and/or California Business and Professions Code Section 17200, et seq., committed by Burger Bar in connection with its collection of Health Care Surcharges in 2009, 2010 and 2011 (the "Released Claims").

5.2 Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the People do not release any of the following:

- Any municipal or state tax claims or liabilities; and

5.4 The releases set forth in paragraphs 5.1 and 5.3 extend to claims that the Parties do not know or suspect to exist in their favor. The Parties agree that this paragraph constitutes a waiver of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The Parties acknowledge and agree that this waiver of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code is an essential and material term of this release, and without such waiver the settlement would not have been accepted. The Parties hereby represent that they understand and acknowledge the significance and consequence of this release and of this specific waiver of Section 1542.

The Parties further acknowledge that this release does not in any way relieve the Parties of the obligation to abide by each and every term of this Agreement nor impair their ability to enforce this Agreement as provided in paragraph 8.3. Further, this release does not deprive the Parties from seeking any relief for failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement.

6. Authority

The Parties hereto represent and warrant to each other that the person executing this Agreement on its behalf has full authority and capacity to execute this Agreement and to give the releases and other promises contained herein. If this representation is false or inaccurate, and any claim or matter is asserted against a party by anyone who is the assignee or transferee of such a claim or matter, then the party who assigned or transferred such claim or matter shall fully indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the party against whom such claim or matter is asserted and its successors from and against such claim or matter.

BURGER BAR SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT – EXHIBIT B

Dear current or former employee:

Since 2008, employers in San Francisco have had an obligation to comply with the Health Care Security Ordinance (“HCSO”). Many companies, including Burger Bar San Francisco LLC (“Burger Bar”), chose to add a surcharge to their customers’ bills to pay for these costs which were described as a SF Health Tax to cover employees’ health care benefits on their bills. The San Francisco City Attorney, Dennis Herrera, initiated an investigation to determine whether the funds received from this surcharge may have exceeded the amount restaurants actually spent on employee health care.

City Attorney Dennis Herrera and Burger Bar San Francisco reached a voluntary resolution of this investigation. As part of this resolution, your employer will make payments to you via four installment payments due to you by the following dates:

	PAYMENT DUE DATE	AMOUNT DUE
1	Effective Date of Agreement + 90 Days	25% of Total Payment
2	Effective Date of Agreement + 180 Days	25% of Total Payment
	Effective Date of Agreement + 270 Days	25% of Total Payment
	Effective Date of Agreement + 360 Days	25% of Total Payment

The amount due to you is a function of the hours you worked in San Francisco during 2009, 2010 and/or 2011. A check for one of these payments is enclosed herein. This money is for your personal use. Please be advised that the enclosed check must be cashed within 60 days of the date of this letter or a stop payment order will be placed on the check.

If you are currently employed by Burger Bar and “covered” by the HCSO, Burger Bar is making quarterly health care expenditures on your behalf. If you have any questions about the health care benefits provided by Burger Bar, please contact Forrest Loing at 415-983-0281

For questions about your rights under the HCSO, please visit the OLSE website at www.sfgov.org/olse/hcso, or contact the OLSE at (415) 554-7892 or hcso@sfgov.org.
