SKOOL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT -- EXHIBIT B

[DATE]

Dear current or former employee:

Employers in San Francisco have an obligation to comply with the Health Care Security Ordinance ("HCSO"), which established San Francisco's groundbreaking universal health care program and imposed an employer spending requirement. Many companies, including Skool, have chosen to add a surcharge to their customers' bills that were described as intended to cover employees' health care benefits. The San Francisco City Attorney, Dennis Herrera, initiated an investigation to determine whether the funds received from this surcharge may have exceeded the amount the Skool actually spent on employee health care.

City Attorney Dennis Herrera and Skool reached a voluntary resolution of the investigation. As part of this resolution, we are making the attached payment to you. The amount due to you is a function of the hours you worked in San Francisco during 2011. This money is for your personal use. Please be advised that the enclosed check must be cashed within 60 days of the date of this letter or a stop payment order will be placed on the check.

If you are currently employed by Skool and "covered" by the HCSO, Skool is making quarterly health care expenditures on your behalf. If you have any questions about the health care benefits provided by Skool, please contact [NAME] at [PHONE] or [EMAIL].

For questions about your rights under the HCSO, please visit the OLSE website at www.sfgov.org/olse/hcso, or contact the OLSE at (415) 554-7892 or hcso@sfgov.org.

Sincerely,
