RE: Mayoral Appointments to and Seats on Boards, Commissions, and Other Bodies; and Related Matters

SUMMARY

In this memorandum, we provide a summary of the legal requirements regarding the various boards, commissions, and other bodies for which the Mayor has appointing authority, including those bodies where all seats are filled by the Mayor, and those where the Mayor’s appointing authority extends to only some of the seats. The memorandum also covers bodies on which the Mayor or a designee of the Mayor, or an agency within the Mayor’s Office, has one or more seats.

The memorandum includes a general discussion of matters relating to the appointment of members of boards, commissions, and other bodies, including the different systems of appointments (exclusively mayoral, or mixed); residency and other eligibility requirements for members; compensation and health benefits, if any, for members; terms and tenure of members; removal, recall, and resignation of members; and the Mayor’s role in appointing and removing department heads when a department is under the jurisdiction of a board or commission.

Also, in Appendices A-C, we provide information about each of the specific bodies to which the memorandum applies.

- Appendix A covers City bodies the Charter creates.
- Appendix B covers City bodies created by ordinance.
- Appendix C covers other bodies created by state or federal law that are not City bodies but that nonetheless provide for mayoral appointments.

We will update these appendices periodically to reflect the creation of new bodies and the dissolution of existing bodies, and also to note significant changes in law regarding particular bodies.

Although we cover appointments to many policy bodies, this memorandum still has limited scope. It does not cover bodies to which only the Board of Supervisors or only City officials other than the Mayor make appointments. For information on bodies for which some or all members are appointed by the Board, see the Board’s “2018 Annual Listing of Active Boards,”

RE: Mayoral Appointments to and Seats on Boards, Commissions, and Other Bodies; and Related Matters

Commissions, Committees, and Task Forces with Requirements for Membership, Qualifications, Appointment and Term Dates, and Terms Expiring in 2018” as posted on the Board of Supervisors website in compliance with the Maddy Act, California Government Code §54972 (http://www.sfbos.org/vacancy). In this memorandum we also do not address the Mayor’s authority to fill vacancies in elective City offices, including the Board of Supervisors, and on the Board of Education and the Governing Board of the Community College District. (Charter §§ 3.100(15), 13.101.5.) Nor do we address the Mayor’s authority, which is broad, to appoint members to citizen advisory committees, which are “passive meeting bodies” that the Mayor has created to advise the Mayor on particular matters. (Admin. Code §§ 67.3(c), 67.4.)

This memorandum updates and supersedes Opinion No. 2014-01, dated August 18, 2014, entitled “Summary of Legal Requirements for Appointment of Members to Boards and Commissions and Certain Other Entities, Removal and Other Related Matters, Appointment and Removal of Department Heads Under Those Boards and Commissions, and Mayoral Voting Seats on Certain Boards and Commissions and Other Entities.”

We emphasize that this memorandum is intended as a general overview. Even considering the more specific descriptions of boards, commissions, and other bodies in Appendices A-C, this memorandum does not answer every question regarding mayoral appointments and related issues. The specific facts and circumstances bearing on a question may influence the legal analysis and conclusion; and in some instances the law may be unclear. Where specific questions arise, we encourage the Mayor’s Office to consult in advance with the City Attorney’s Office for additional guidance.

DISCUSSION

I. CREATION OF BOARDS, COMMISSIONS, AND OTHER BODIES

California general law regulates cities unless voters in the city adopt a charter to govern their own municipal affairs. In a chartered city, the charter is the equivalent of the constitution of the city and regulates and governs all aspects of city governance and administration. San Francisco voters have adopted several charters for the City, most recently in 1932 and then in 1995 (effective July 1996). The San Francisco Charter (the “Charter”) has created most of the boards and commissions in San Francisco government.

Some of these Charter-created boards and commissions are long-standing, deriving their genesis from the 1932 Charter and amendments to that Charter. Others have been more recently established. And, over the years, Charter amendments have revised provisions for existing Charter-created boards and commissions, sometimes substantially; for example, by changing the system of appointments to the board or commission, or modifying its powers and duties.

Charter-created boards and commissions exercise the City’s sovereign powers. But there also are a few bodies created in the Charter that are advisory.

RE: Mayoral Appointments to and Seats on Boards, Commissions, and Other Bodies; and Related Matters

The Board of Supervisors also has the authority, by ordinance, to create boards and commissions that exercise the City's sovereign powers. San Francisco voters have the same power to create a board or commission by voting to approve an ordinance on the ballot at a Citywide election. There are a few boards and commissions created by ordinance that exercise the City's sovereign powers. But it is more common for ordinances to create advisory bodies that go by many titles, including "committee," "task force," "working group," and "advisory body," among others. These advisory bodies often are more short-lived than boards and commissions.

In a few instances, a board, commission, or other body is a creature of both Charter and ordinance; created by the Charter, but with its composition or responsibilities spelled out in an ordinance. And in many instances, an ordinance will add to the powers and duties the Charter gives to a board or commission.

The City has also created some legally separate boards, commissions, or other bodies under state or federal law. These bodies are not part of the municipal corporation of the City and County of San Francisco, but have jurisdiction within San Francisco. These bodies carry out various state and federal functions at the local city and county level (e.g., the Health Authority, the Housing Authority, the Parking Authority, the Relocation Appeals Board, the Successor Agency Commission (known as the Commission on Community Investment and Infrastructure, or CCII), and the Local Workforce Investment Board). Further, State law and agreements among public entities within California, including San Francisco, have created certain multi-jurisdictional agencies in which San Francisco participates (e.g., the Association of Bay Area Governments, the Bay Area Quality Management District, the Golden Gate Bridge, Highway and Transportation District, the Peninsula Corridor Joint Powers Board, and the Transbay Joint Powers Authority).

II. MAYORAL RESPONSIBILITIES FOR APPOINTMENTS

The Charter and ordinances empower the Mayor to appoint members to various City boards, commissions, and other bodies. There are a variety of appointment systems prescribed by law, as described below.

Charter section 3.100(18) establishes the most common method of appointment to the most important City bodies. Under this system, the Mayor appoints all members of the body. The appointments are effective upon transmittal of a Notice of Appointment to the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors (although, as noted below, the member may not serve without having taken the oath of office).

The Mayor should transmit the Notice of Appointment to the Clerk promptly upon making the appointment. The Notice of Appointment must include the person's qualifications to serve and a statement as to how the person represents the City's communities of interest, neighborhoods, and diverse populations. The appointment remains in effect unless the Board of Supervisors rejects it by a two-thirds vote (eight members) within 30 days following transmittal of the Notice of Appointment.

Charter bodies to which this appointment process applies include (references are to Charter sections):

- Aging and Adult Services Commission (§ 4.120)
- Airport Commission (§ 4.115)
- Arts Commission (§ 5.103)
- Civil Service Commission (§ 10.100)
- Commission on the Environment (§ 4.118)
- Commission on the Status of Women (§ 4.119)
- Fire Commission (§ 4.108)
- Health Commission (§ 4.110)
- Human Rights Commission (§ 4.107)
- Human Services Commission (§ 4.111)
- Juvenile Probation Commission (§ 7.102)
- Library Commission (§ 8.102)
- Recreation and Park Commission (§ 4.113)
- War Memorial and Performing Arts Center Board of Trustees (§ 5.106)

Also, the Charter requires the Mayor to appoint under Charter section 3.100(18) all members of boards, commissions, and other bodies created by ordinance that wield executive power. Such appointments are subject to rejection by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Supervisors within 30 days of transmittal to the Board of the Notice of Appointment.

While Charter section 3.100(18) prescribes the appointment system for most Charter bodies to which the Mayor makes all appointments, there are some exceptions, where different rules govern when and whether the appointments are effective. Charter bodies to which this type of appointment process applies include:

- Historic Preservation Commission (§ 4.135)
- Municipal Transportation Agency Board of Directors (§ 8A.102)
- Port Commission (§ 4.114)
- Public Utilities Commission (§ 4.112)

For these bodies, the Mayor’s appointments are, technically, nominations. They are not effective immediately, as under Charter section 3.100(18). Rather, for the last three bodies listed above, appointments are not effective until the Board of Supervisors approves them. Appointments to the Historic Preservation Commission are governed by a more complicated process. An appointment is not effective immediately but becomes effective if the Board approves it or if, after 60 days, the Board has failed to act on it. But if the Mayor fails to make a timely appointment (within 60 days of the expiration of a term or other vacancy), the Board President may make the appointment instead, subject to approval by the Board.

In a few instances, a Charter body’s members are exclusively appointed by the Mayor, but the appointments are not subject to review, rejection, or approval by the Board of Supervisors. An example is the Asian Art Commission. (§ 5.104.)

The Charter creates some boards, commissions, and bodies to which the Mayor does not appoint all of the members (“nonexclusive bodies”). Rather, one or more other authorities make the remaining appointments. These other appointing authorities usually include the Board of Supervisors (or Board President), but may also include other City officers or entities. There are variations among these nonexclusive bodies as to whether mayoral appointments are subject to the Board’s review.

For some of these nonexclusive bodies, the Mayor’s appointments are not subject to Board review. These include:

• Building Inspection Commission (§ 4.121)
• Children, Youth and Their Families Oversight and Advisory Committee (§ 16.108-1)
• Elections Commission (§ 13.103.5)
• Elections Task Force (§ 13.110(d))
• Ethics Commission (§ 15.100)
• Municipal Transportation Agency Citizens’ Advisory Council (§ 8A.111)
• Public Utilities Rate Fairness Board (§ 8B.125(7))
• Youth Commission (§ 4.122)

By contrast, for some of these nonexclusive bodies, mayoral appointments are subject to Board review. The Mayor’s appointments to the Health Service Board (§ 12.200), Retirement Board (§ 12.100), and Small Business Commission (§ 4.134) are subject to the appointment system prescribed in Charter section 3.100(18). See the City Attorney Opinion, dated April 21, 2004, entitled “Authority of Board of Supervisors to Reject Mayoral Appointments to the Small Business Commission,” available on the City Attorney’s website.

Mayoral appointments to certain other nonexclusive bodies are subject to a different review process. These include:

• Board of Appeals (§ 4.106)
• Entertainment Commission (§ 4.117)
• Planning Commission (§ 4.105)

- Police Commission (§ 4.109)

For these bodies, a mayoral appointment is not effective immediately but becomes effective if the Board approves it or if, after 60 days, the Board has not acted on it.

The Mayor has a seat but no vote on all boards and commissions appointed by the Mayor. (Charter §3.100(10).)

Many advisory bodies created by ordinance include mayoral appointments. The vast majority of these advisory bodies have multiple appointing authorities. Indeed, for many of these bodies, the Mayor has a small number of appointments relative to the total number of members of the body. Mayoral appointments to these advisory bodies are generally not subject to Charter section 3.100(18) or to any other process for review and rejection or approval by the Board of Supervisors. Where the ordinance includes a seat on the body for the Mayor, which can be filled by the Mayor’s designee, the same principle applies; the Mayor’s selection of the designee is not subject to Board review.

Regardless of the appointment system applicable to a mayoral appointment, if City law requires a mayoral appointee to file a Statement of Economic Interests (“Form 700”) with the Ethics Commission, the Mayor must provide written notice to the Ethics Commission of the name of the appointee within 15 days of the appointee’s assuming office. (Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code § 3.1-105.) The boards and commissions whose members must file the Form 700 with the Ethics Commission are enumerated in Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code section 3.1-103(a).

The Mayor’s power to make appointments to boards, commissions, and other bodies may be exercised by a member of the Board of Supervisors or the Board President, when serving as Acting Mayor. See City Attorney Opinion No. 2003-05 (November 10, 2003), “Validity of Appointments Made by the Acting Mayor to the Public Utilities Commission,” available on the City Attorney’s website.

Mayoral appointments to, and mayoral seats on, bodies that are legally distinct from the City because they are created under state or federal law, including multi-jurisdictional agencies, are governed by the laws, agreements, and by-laws applicable to each of those bodies. They vary from entity to entity. Examples of these bodies are noted in Parts I and IX of this memorandum.

III. RESIDENCY AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS

In general, Charter section 4.101 governs residency and other requirements for appointees to bodies created by Charter or ordinance, including purely advisory bodies. Appointees to these entities should be broadly representative of the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and diversity of people who live in San Francisco. (Charter § 4.101(a)(1).) This requirement is general and aspirational in nature.

Except where the Charter specifies otherwise, members of Charter-created bodies must be "electors." (Charter § 4.101(a)(2).) The Charter defines an elector as a person registered to vote in the City. (Charter Art. XVII.) This voter registration requirement necessarily encompasses other requirements: that a member be of legal voting age, a City resident, and a United States citizen.

For bodies created by ordinance, the elector requirement also applies, but with certain qualifications. The appointing authority may waive the residency requirement if that officer or entity cannot locate a qualified local elector. Also, the ordinance may specify that members need not be of legal voting age or residents. But it may not dispense with the citizenship requirement. (Charter § 4.101(a)(2).)

Some boards, commissions, and other bodies created by Charter or ordinance must include members who come from a neighborhood, profession, trade, union, or business, or who meet other special qualifications. Where an appointee is selected to fill such a seat, the Ethics Commission may grant that appointee a waiver from certain conflict of interest laws. Typically a waiver is not necessary if the body serves a purely advisory function.

If a member of a body, whether created by Charter or ordinance, meets the requirements for the position at the time of appointment, but at a later time fails to meet those requirements (for example, a commissioner of a Charter-created body ceases to be an elector because the commissioner moves out of San Francisco), the member is no longer qualified to serve and has effectively resigned the position, by operation of law, when the requirement is no longer met. In such an instance, the member should notify the appointing authority immediately of any change of circumstances that renders the member ineligible to serve.

IV. OATH OF OFFICE; DUTY OF LOYALTY TO THE CITY

The California Constitution requires members of boards, commissions, or other bodies that exercise the City's sovereign power—most typically, Charter-created boards and commissions—to take an oath of office as a condition of assuming office. (Cal. Const. Art. 20, § 3.) Thus, an appointee to such a body may not act as a member of the body without having taken the oath. Members of purely advisory bodies do not have to take an oath of office to serve on the advisory body. But even if an oath is not legally required, members of such bodies may take a ceremonial oath.

Once an appointee who is required to take the oath of office does so and assumes office, the appointee becomes not only a member of the body but also a City officer. A City office is a public trust and all officers must exercise their duties in a manner that serves the City's interests. (Charter § 15.103.)
Even when the law requires that a member of a body that exercises the City’s sovereign power be selected from a certain neighborhood, community, industry, or professional group, such officers owe their duty of loyalty to the entire City. They do not in a strict sense represent the neighborhood, community, industry, or profession, although they may bring to their service a greater knowledge of or appreciation for the needs of that group. Like all City officers, they must act in the City’s best interests.

V. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

A. Compensation

Under Charter section A8.400, the Board of Supervisors, by ordinance, sets compensation, if any, for all City officers – which includes members of bodies that exercise the City’s sovereign power – except where the Charter or other controlling law specifies otherwise. Compensation is rarely, if ever, available for members of purely advisory bodies.

Compensation for members of boards and commissions that are legally distinct from the City because created under state or federal law, including multi-jurisdictional agencies, is governed by the laws and agreements and by-laws applicable to each of those bodies. They vary from entity to entity.

B. Health Benefits

Charter sections 12.202 and A8.420 establish a Health Service System and provide, among other things, that City officers, and other officials as provided by ordinance, are entitled to membership in the system. Administrative Code section 16.700 lists City bodies whose members are eligible to participate in the Health Service System. Even if a body is not specifically listed there, if its members are City officers, they are entitled to membership in the system.

Members of bodies that are legally distinct from the City because created under state or federal law, including multi-jurisdictional agencies, generally are not eligible for participation in the Health Service System solely by virtue of their appointment to such entities, although there are certain exceptions. But a member of such a body may be eligible to participate in the system by virtue of that member’s City office or if Administrative Code section 16.700 or another City ordinance so provides.

VI. TERMS OF OFFICE AND TENURE

Under the Charter and applicable ordinances, the term for appointees to most City boards and commissions (“commissions”) is four years. The same criteria and procedures that apply to initial appointments for a term also apply to appointments of persons to complete unexpired terms. (Charter §4.101(b).)

The term for each seat on a commission is fixed at the time the body is constituted. Unless expressly stated otherwise in the Charter or a governing ordinance, a commission or other body is "constituted" when a majority of its members are sworn into office, where an oath is required. The term for each seat runs whether the seat is occupied or vacant. Charter section 18.114 provides that when a new commission is created or when new members are added to an existing commission, initial appointments must give the members staggered terms. But a new Charter provision could expressly provide otherwise.

The terms for seats on advisory bodies created by ordinance are typically set in the ordinance. In some instances, where an advisory body is expected to be of short duration because of a sunset provision, the term for seats on the body is indefinite and expected to span the life of the body.

As a general rule, there are no term limits for members of commissions. But the Charter or a governing ordinance may provide otherwise. For example, the Charter provides that no person may serve more than three terms as a member of the Municipal Transportation Agency Board of Directors. (Charter § 8A.102(a).) The Charter also places term limits on members of the Elections Commission and Ethics Commission. (Charter §§ 13.103.5, 15.100.) Two voter-approved ordinances, creating the Citizens' General Obligation Bond Oversight Committee and the Public Utilities Revenue Bond Oversight Committee, impose term limits on the members of those bodies. (Admin. Code §§ 5.33(a), 5A.33(d).)

In general, once the term of a member of a Charter-created body expires, the incumbent, if not replaced or reappointed, may retain the office as a holdover member for a maximum of 60 days. (Charter § 4.101.5.) There are some exceptions to this rule, permitting longer holdover service. Members of citizen advisory committees created in the Charter, the arts and cultural bodies in Article V of the Charter, and the health and retirement boards in Article XII of the Charter, are not subject to the 60-day limitation and thus may serve indefinitely – until replaced or reappointed – as holdover members following the end of their terms. On the other hand, the Charter may specifically prohibit a body from having holdover members, in which case the 60-day holdover period does not apply. For example, the Charter prohibits members of the Police Commission from serving as holdovers. (Charter § 4.109.)

A person serving as a holdover member of a body is replaced by operation of law once another person has been appointed to the body and, where required by law, has taken the oath of office. Or the holdover member may be reappointed to the body. The replacement, or the reappointed holdover member, will serve the unexpired balance of the term.

An important distinction exists between the term of an office and an individual member’s tenure in that office. The term of an office is generally a fixed period of time measured from a fixed anniversary date. For boards and commissions, the term is generally four years from the date a quorum of the entity was first sworn into office, the first anniversary date (unless the enabling legislation mandates a specific operative date). The term runs with the office, not with the individual occupant. As mentioned above, the term continues to run whether the seat is occupied or vacant. If, for example, a seat is left open for six months after the date the term expires, the term of the office remains four years, but the next commissioner – if appointed six months after the prior term expired – will hold office only for the remaining three-and-one-half years of that next term.

The terms of office for members of bodies that are legally distinct from the City because created under state or federal law, including multi-jurisdictional agencies, are governed by the laws, agreements, and by-laws applicable to each of those bodies. They vary from entity to entity.

VII. LEAVING OFFICE: REMOVAL, RECALL, RESIGNATION

A. Removal

Members of many commissions, though appointed for fixed terms, serve at the pleasure of the Mayor or other appointing authority; that is, they serve an at-will tenure. Other members may be removed only for cause. All for-cause commissioners must receive notice and an opportunity to be heard before they can be removed.

Under the Charter, the Mayor may suspend most for-cause commissioners and all elected officials for official misconduct. For some commissions, the Mayor may suspend only mayoral appointees. (Charter §15.105(b).) “Official misconduct” is defined in Charter section 15.105(e) as:

[A]ny wrongful behavior by a public officer in relation to the duties of his or her office, willful in its character, including any failure, refusal or neglect of an officer to perform any duty enjoined on him or her by law, or conduct that falls below the standard of decency, good faith and right action impliedly required of all public officers and including any violation of a specific conflict of interest or governmental ethics law. When any City law provides that a violation of the law constitutes or is deemed official misconduct, the conduct is covered by this definition and may subject the person to discipline and/or removal from office.

Removal is mandatory upon conviction of a felony crime involving moral turpitude. (Charter §15.105(c).)

Upon suspending a public officer under the Charter, the Mayor must immediately notify the Ethics Commission and Board of Supervisors of the suspension in writing. The Mayor must present written charges against the officer to the Ethics Commission and Board of Supervisors at or before their next regularly scheduled meetings following such suspension. The Mayor must also immediately furnish a copy of the charges to the officer, who has the right to appear with counsel before the Ethics Commission in his or her defense. After holding a hearing on the charges, the Ethics Commission must recommend to the Board of Supervisors whether the charges should be sustained. If, after reviewing the complete record, the Board of Supervisors sustains the charges by no less than a three-fourths vote (i.e., nine votes), the suspended officer is removed from office. If the charges are not sustained, or not acted on by the Board of Supervisors within 30 days of receipt of the record from the Ethics Commission, the suspended officer is reinstated. (Charter § 15.105(a).)

Removal requirements for members of bodies that are legally distinct from the City because created under state or federal law, including multi-jurisdictional agencies, are governed by the laws, agreements, and by-laws applicable to each of those bodies. They vary from entity to entity.

B. Recall

Generally, members of commissions are not subject to recall by the voters. But there are exceptions for a few Charter-created bodies. The Charter empowers the voters to recall members of the Airport Commission, Ethics Commission, Port Commission, and Public Utilities Commission. (Charter §§ 4.114, 14.103.) But no recall petition may be initiated for any officer whose term of office ends in six months or less. (California Elections Code §11007.)

C. Resignation

Chapter 16, Article IV-A, of the Administrative Code governs resignations of City officers. Any member of a commission may resign by presenting a written resignation to the appointing authority. (Admin. Code § 16.89-15.) Such resignation becomes effective at the time the office of the appointing authority receives the written resignation, unless otherwise stated in the resignation. (Admin. Code §16.89-16.) For instance, a notice of resignation could state that the resignation will become effective as of a stated later date, or once the appointing officer designates a new appointee.

A purported resignation that is made orally but not reduced to writing is not operative. Similarly, an offer of resignation, while indicating the officeholder's willingness to vacate the office, does not, by itself, constitute a resignation, even if the offer is made in writing.

For further information, see City Attorney Opinion No. 2007-01 (September 21, 2007), "Laws Governing Resignations of Appointed City Officers," available on the City Attorney's website.

D. Resignation by Operation of Law
MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable London Breed, Mayor
Angela Calvillo, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors
DATE: July 11, 2018
RE: Mayoral Appointments to and Seats on Boards, Commissions, and Other Bodies; and Related Matters

As previously discussed, if a member of a City body no longer meets the eligibility requirements to serve on the body, the member may no longer serve, regardless of whether the member has formally submitted a resignation. In effect, by failing to maintain the qualifications to serve on the body, the member has constructively resigned from the body.

Resignation by operation of law may occur in other circumstances. With certain narrow exceptions, a member of a Charter-created body other than a citizens’ advisory committee who files a declaration of candidacy for any state or local elective office or for the BART Board of Directors forfeits the seat on the body by operation of law. (Charter §4.101.1.) And, in a few instances, the law creating a City body allows for “automatic” removal of members if they do not meet specified attendance requirements. This occurs most commonly with City bodies created by ordinance. The members of at least one Charter body, the Youth Commission, are subject to such a provision. (Charter § 4.123(c).) A City body may not itself impose automatic removal requirements that are not specified in law. In an extreme case, failure to attend a body’s meetings could be considered abandonment of the office, rendering the office vacant. (Admin. Code § 16.89-17.)

E. Post-Separation Processes

Regardless of the appointment system applicable to a mayoral appointment, if City law requires a mayoral appointee to file a Statement of Economic Interests (“Form 700”) with the Ethics Commission, the Mayor must provide written notice to the Ethics Commission of the name of the appointee within 15 days of the appointee’s leaving office. (Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code § 3.1-105.)

VIII. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF DEPARTMENT HEADS SERVING UNDER BOARDS OR COMMISSIONS

The Charter empowers the Mayor to appoint and to seek removal of most department heads serving under boards and commissions. (Charter §§ 3.100(19), 4.102(5), 4.102(6).)

A. Appointment

The Mayor has the power to appoint department heads from among three or more nominees submitted by a board or commission (“commission”). (Charter § 4.102(5).) But the Mayor may appoint a department head even if the Mayor receives fewer than three nominations, so long as the Mayor receives at least one. The three-nominee process is intended to give the Mayor a range of selection; if the Mayor does not object, the commission may submit fewer than three nominees. While the Mayor may indicate a preferred nominee before the commission submits its nominee(s), the commission is not required to honor the Mayor’s preference.

There are some exceptions to this process, where the Mayor has no role in the appointment of the department head. For example, the Civil Service Commission appoints its Executive Officer (Charter § 10.101), the Board of Appeals appoints its Executive Secretary (Chart § 4.106), the Elections Commission appoints the Director of Elections (Chart § 13.104), and the Ethics Commission appoints its Executive Director (Chart § 15.101). Other examples of bodies that appoint the department head include the arts-related commissions: the Arts Commission (Chart § 5.103), Fine Arts Museums Board of Trustees (Chart § 5.102), Asian Art Commission (Chart § 5.102), and War Memorial and Performing Arts Center Board of Trustees (Chart § 5.106).

In a few instances, the Mayor has the power to appoint the department head, but that power is circumscribed by the requirement that the Board of Supervisors confirm the appointment. Two examples are the appointment of the Human Resources Director from nominees submitted by the Civil Service Commission (Chart § 10.103), and the appointment of the Director of the Department of Police Accountability from nominees submitted by the Police Commission (Chart § 4.136.)

B. Removal

Department heads serving under a commission are generally subject to removal by that body. (Chart § 4.102(6).) Also, the Mayor may seek removal of most department heads by recommending removal to the commission under which the department head serves; the commission must then act on the recommendation by removing or retaining the department head within 30 days. Failure to timely act on the Mayor's recommendation constitutes official misconduct. (Chart § 4.102(6).) For one department head, the Chief of Police, the Mayor has independent authority to remove the department head, as does the Police Commission. (Chart § 4.109.)

IX. APPENDICES A-C; MAYORAL APPOINTMENTS TO DIFFERENT TYPES OF BODIES

As previously stated, in Appendices A-C, we provide information about specific bodies to which this memorandum applies. We will update these appendices periodically.

Appendix A includes City bodies created in the Charter. Most Charter-created bodies exercise City powers, although a few are purely advisory. Appendix B includes City bodies created by ordinance rather than Charter. Most ordinance-created bodies are purely advisory, although a few exercise City powers. Appendix C includes several entities that are not City bodies — that is, they are not part of City government — but that nonetheless provide for mayoral appointments to the body. These bodies are separate legal entities with their own power, among other things, to sue and be sued, enter into contracts, and in some instances, exert regulatory authority.

RE: Mayoral Appointments to and Seats on Boards, Commissions, and Other Bodies; and Related Matters

jurisdictional body, generally, each member city, county, or other public agency is authorized to appoint one or more directors to a multi-jurisdictional board of directors. For the City, appointments are usually divided between the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors, but other City agencies such as the Municipal Transportation Agency have been granted appointment authority for some bodies.

One type of multi-jurisdictional agency is created by state statute and derives its authority from the Legislature. The Metropolitan Transportation Commission, the Bay Area Air Quality Management District, and the Golden Gate Bridge, Highway and Transportation District fall into this category. State statutes empower eligible counties to appoint members to the board of directors and enumerate the specific powers of each agency. A mayor, board of supervisors, or other appointing authority may limit the appointment by term, removal conditions, or any other provision that is not specifically covered by state law. To determine the term and conditions of an appointee’s tenure one must consider the statute that created the agency and any declaration or resolution making the appointment.

A second type of multi-jurisdictional agency, a “joint powers authority,” is created by agreement between public agencies and derives its authority from a contract known as a joint powers agreement. State law authorizes two or more public agencies to create a joint powers authority and to endow the new entity with some or all the powers of the parties to the contract. A joint powers agreement enumerates the powers and limitations that the member agencies have granted to or withheld from a joint powers authority. Each member agency generally appoints one or more representatives to a board of directors as set forth in the agreement. Unless specified in the joint powers agreement, each member agency retains authority over the appointment, term, and removal of its appointees. The Transbay Joint Powers Authority, the Peninsula Corridor Joint Powers Board, and the Association of Bay Area Governments fall into the category of multi-jurisdictional joint powers authorities. To determine the terms and conditions of an appointee’s tenure, one must consider any resolutions that authorized entry into the joint powers agreement, the joint powers agreement itself, and specific resolutions or declarations of appointment.

Removal: By a two-thirds vote, the WISF may recommend the removal of any member. Once the WISF votes to initiate removal of a member, the WISF must notify the member of the proposed action, the reasons for the action, and the date, time and place of the hearing 15 days before the effective date of the proposed termination of membership. The member proposed for removal has an opportunity to respond at a hearing before the WISF. Following the hearing, the WISF votes on whether the member should be removed. OVERSIGHT BOARD OF THE SUCCESSOR AGENCY
Cal. Health & Safety Code § 34179

Background: Assembly Bill No. 1X 26 (Chapter 5, Statutes of 2011-12, First Extraordinary Session) (AB 26), amending the Community Redevelopment Law (“CRL”), California Health and Safety Code sections 33000 et. seq., dissolved redevelopment agencies as of February 1, 2012 when the California Supreme Court decision, California Redevelopment Association v. Matosantos, upheld AB 26’s dissolution of redevelopment agencies. AB 26 vested successor agencies with all authority, rights, powers, duties, and obligations vested with the former redevelopment agencies under the CRL. The successor agency to the San Francisco Redevelopment Agency is the Successor Agency to the Redevelopment Agency of the City and County of San Francisco (the “Successor Agency”), also known as the Office of Community Investment and Infrastructure. Assembly Bill No. 1484 (Chapter 26, Statute of 2011-12, Regular Session), also amending the CRL, established the Successor Agency as a separate legal public body. It declared that a successor agency succeeded to the organizational status of its former redevelopment agency, but without authority to participate in development activity, except to complete work related to approved enforceable obligations (contractual or statutory) of its predecessor redevelopment agency. Successor agencies must wind down the affairs of their former redevelopment agencies, and, in doing so, with few exceptions are unable to enter into new enforceable obligations. By winding down the affairs of redevelopment agencies, the State intends that fewer and fewer property tax revenues will be earmarked for redevelopment activity and, instead, will be redirected to taxing entities, such as school districts, within the territorial boundary of a successor agency. The Successor Agency must terminate its existence within one year of retiring or paying off the debts of the former redevelopment agency. (Cal. Health & Safety Code §§ 34172, 34173, 34187(b).)

Purpose: The CRL requires that each successor agency have an oversight board. (Cal. Health & Safety Code § 34179.) The purpose of the Oversight Board is to direct and approve certain fiscal, contractual, property or project-based decisions of the Successor Agency, including, without limitation, approval of the Recognized Obligation Payment Schedule (“ROPS”) and disposition of agency assets. (Cal. Health & Safety Code §§ 34180, 34181.) The ROPS is a biannual (January-June and July-December) schedule showing payments required to satisfy enforceable obligations. The Successor Agency may not make payments in excess of amounts approved on the ROPS for an enforceable obligation. Each approval of an action by the Oversight Board under the Dissolution Law (AB 26 and AB 1484 as amended) must be by resolution and is subject to approval by the State Department of Finance. (Cal. Health & Safety Code § 34179(e)-(h).) In performing its duties, the Oversight Board owes fiduciary responsibilities to the holders of enforceable obligations and the taxing entities. The Oversight Board will cease to exist when all indebtedness of the former redevelopment agency has been paid. (Cal. Health & Safety Code § 34179(m).)

Members: Consists of seven members. Four members are appointed by the Mayor and subject to confirmation by the Board of Supervisors, one of whom must represent the largest number of former San Francisco Redevelopment Agency employees employed by the Successor Agency. The Bay Area Rapid Transit District, as the largest special district in the territorial jurisdiction of the Successor Agency by property tax share, the County Superintendent of Education, and the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges each appoint one member. (Cal. Health and Safety Code § 34179(a)(10). Individuals may be members of the Oversight Board (and members of up to four additional oversight boards) and simultaneously hold an office with the City, the school district, a special district, or the community college district. (Cal. Health & Safety Code § 34179(i).)

Term: The CRL does not specify a term for members. However, Board of Supervisors Motion No. 12-9 states that, except for initial appointments, the term of each member shall be four years.

Removal: Each member serves at the pleasure of the authority that appointed the member. (Cal. Health & Safety Code § 34179(g).)

Compensation: Members must serve without compensation or reimbursement. (Cal. Health & Safety Code § 34179(c).)

Health Benefits: Not eligible for health benefits. (See Cal. Health & Safety Code § 34179(c).)

Appointment and Removal of Agency Head: Not applicable.
PARKING AUTHORITY
Cal. Streets & Highway Code §§ 32650 et seq., 32801 et seq.; Charter § 8A.112;
Admin. Code §§ 17.1 et seq.

Purpose: The Parking Authority may acquire land, improvements and other property as necessary and appropriate for use as public off-street parking lots and garages, and may enter into management agreements with respect to its property. (Cal. Streets & Highway Code § 32802). The Parking Authority is a governmental entity established under State law, separate from the City and County of San Francisco. (Cal. Streets & Highway Code § 32650).

Members: Members of the Municipal Transportation Agency's Board of Directors serve ex officio as members of the Parking Authority Commission. (Cal. Streets & Highway Code § 32657(c); Charter § 8A.112(a).) The Chair of the MTA Board of Directors determines which of its members will also serve on the Parking Authority Commission. (Charter § 8A.112(a).) Currently, all seven members of the MTA Board of Directors are assigned to serve on the Parking Authority Commission, but only five members of the MTA Board must be named to the Commission. (Cal. Streets & Highway Code § 32656.)

Term: Four years (concurrent with term as SFMTA Board member). (Cal. Streets & Highway Code § 32657(c).)

Removal: May be suspended by the Mayor and removed by the Board of Supervisors for official misconduct. (Charter § 15.105.)

Compensation: $100 per month.

Health Benefits: Members of the Municipal Transportation Agency’s Board of Directors serve ex officio as members of the Parking Authority (Charter § 8A.112), and are eligible for health benefits as MTA Board members under Administrative Code Section 16.700(28). The Parking Authority is separately authorized to opt for participation per Administrative Code Section 16.700(f).

Cessation of Parking and Traffic Commission: Proposition E adopted November 2, 1999, amended the Charter to merge the Department of Parking and Traffic into the Municipal Transportation Agency. (Charter § 8A.101.) On July 1, 2002 the Municipal Transportation Agency Board of Directors assumed the former Parking and Traffic Commission's responsibilities, including serving ex officio as the Parking Authority Commission. (Cal. Streets & Highway Code § 32657(c); Charter § 8A.112.)

Appointment and Removal of Agency Head: The Municipal Transportation Agency's Board of Directors, acting in their capacity as the Parking Authority Commission, may appoint a Chairperson of the Parking Authority, who would serve at the pleasure of the Commission. (Cal.
Streets & Highway Code § 32658.) However, as authorized under State law, to avoid duplication of work and expenses, the Parking Authority has contracted with the SFMTA to provide administrative services to manage the Parking Authority's six garages. (Cal. Streets & Highway Code § 32812.)

Purpose: The Relocation Appeals Board ("Board") hears all complaints against the Redevelopment Agency, now the Successor Agency (Office of Community Investment and Infrastructure) or any other City agency responsible for providing relocation services due to acts by that agency resulting in the relocation of people from their homes or businesses from a specific address. (Admin. Code §§ 24.7, 24B.1; Cal. Health & Safety Code § 33417.5.) The Board, after a public hearing, transmits its findings and recommendations to the agency. (Admin. Code §§ 24.7, 24B.7.) The displacing agency or agency responsible for providing relocation services must comply with the recommendations to the maximum extent permitted by law or government regulation. (Cal. In 2004, San Francisco voters passed Proposition H, the Public Education Enrichment Fund to enhance K-12 schooling and provide all four-year-old residents with a high-quality preschool education. The purpose of the Commission and its department is to promote, support, and improve the early development of the children from the prenatal stage to five years of age and to carry out the provisions of Proposition 10.

- One member shall be the Director of the Mayor’s Office of Children, Youth and Their Families or his or her designee.
- Five additional members are appointed from among the following categories: persons responsible for management of the following County functions: children services, public health services; behavioral health services, social services and tobacco and other substance abuse prevention and treatment services; recipients of project services included in the County strategic plan; educators specializing in early childhood development; representatives of a local child care resource or referral agency, the Child Care Planning and Advisory Council or another local child care coordinating group; representatives of a local organization for prevention or early intervention for families at risk; representatives of community-based organizations that have the goal of promoting and nurturing early childhood development; representatives of local school districts; and representatives of local medical, pediatric, or obstetric associations or societies. To the extent feasible, members shall be selected from existing committees, councils or coalitions promoting early childhood development to facilitate planning and coordination of services.

Commission members are subject to Charter Section 4.101.5, which allows commission members to serve as hold-over commission members for up to 60 days after their term expires, unless they are re-appointed. If a vacancy occurs during the term of office of any appointed member, a successor shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the office vacated in a manner similar to that for the initial member.

Removal: Appointed members, the non-City officials serve at the pleasure of the Board of Supervisors. However, neither the Administrative Code nor the Rules of Order (Bylaws) specify procedures for removal.

SUCCESSOR AGENCY COMMISSION
(Commission on Community Investment and Infrastructure)
Cal. Health and Safety Code § 34173(g); Ordinance No. 215-12

Purpose: By operation of law, the Successor Agency of the City and County of San Francisco (the Office of Community Investment and Infrastructure, or OCII) is subject to the governance of the City acting through its legislative capacity. The Board of Supervisors, acting as the governing body of the Successor Agency, adopted Ordinance No. 215-12, creating the Successor Agency Commission. The Successor Agency Commission is also known as the Commission on Community Investment and Infrastructure, or CCII. The Successor Agency Commission has the authority to act in place of the former San Francisco Redevelopment Agency to implement, modify, enforce, and complete surviving redevelopment projects, approve contracts and actions related to assets transferred to or retained by the Successor Agency, and take any action on behalf of the Successor Agency that the Redevelopment Dissolution Law (AB 26 and AB 1484, as amended) requires or authorizes, and any other action the Commission deems appropriate that is consistent with the Redevelopment Dissolution Law. Surviving redevelopment projects include, without limitation, three major integrated, multi-phase revitalization projects: (1) the Mission Bay North and South Projects; (2) the Hunters Point Shipyard/Candlestick Project; and (3) the Transbay Transit Center Project (collectively, the “Major Approved Development Projects”). (See also, the Oversight Board of the Successor Agency description included as part of Appendix C.)

Members: Five members, appointed by the Mayor and subject to confirmation by the Board of Supervisors. One member must be a resident of the supervisorial district with the largest amount of cumulative area of the Major Approved Development Projects. One member must be a resident of the supervisorial district with the second largest amount of cumulative area of the Major Approved Development Projects. TRANSBAY JOINT POWERS AUTHORITY BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Gov’t Code §§ 6500 et seq.; Transbay Joint Powers Agreement;
Transbay Joint Powers Bylaws

Purpose: The Transbay Joint Powers Authority (TJPA) will develop, construct and operate the new Transbay Terminal, which will provide regional intermodal transit connections through its expanded bus and rail service, including the downtown extension of Caltrain. (JPA Agreement, § 3.) There are three members of the TJPA: the City and County of San Francisco, the Caltrain Joint Powers Board (JPB), and Alameda County (AC) Transit. (Joint Powers Agreement, Introduction.) The TJPA governs its operations through a Board of Directors. (Joint Powers Agreement, §§ 1, 2.)

Members: Consists of a seven-person Board of Directors. (Joint Powers Agreement § 8(a); TJPA Bylaws § 7.) The City and County of San Francisco appoints four Directors: one appointed by the Mayor (which is not subject to Board of Supervisors approval), one by the City’s Municipal Transportation Agency (which is subject to affirmative Board of Supervisors approval), and two by the Board of Supervisors. (Joint Powers Agreement § 8(a), S.F. Res. No. 393-17, Amend. I.) The Board of Supervisors appointee must be a member of the Board of Supervisors. (San Francisco Board of Supervisors Resolution No. 104-01.) Caltrain JPB and AC Transit appoint the other two members. (Joint Powers Agreement § 8(a); TJPA Bylaws § 7.2.) Appointing authorities may also appoint alternates for the Directors whom they appoint. (Joint Powers Agreement § 8(a); TJPA Bylaws § 7.2.)

Term: None specified in the Joint Powers Agreement. Under the TJPA Bylaws, a vacancy exists following: the death of a director, the removal, dismissal or resignation of a director from the position s/he held with the Member at the time he or she became a director, a resolution of the Board of a vacancy of an office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of the court or convicted of a felony after having been appointed, or written notice to the Secretary from the appointing member stating that the designation of the director or alternate director has been revoked. (TJPA Bylaws § 7.3(a).) No director or his or her alternate may resign if the Authority would then be without at least two directors or their alternates in charge of its affairs. (TJPA Bylaws § 7.3(b).)

Removal: Directors may be removed by their appointing authority. (TJPA Bylaws § 7.3(a)(iv).)

Compensation: None. (But, Directors may be reimbursed for expenses.) (Joint Powers Agreement § 8(b); TJPA Bylaws § 7.8.)

Health Benefits: Not separately eligible for health benefits from the City and County of San Francisco by virtue of appointment to the Transbay Joint Powers Authority Board.

Appointment and Removal of Agency Head: The Board appoints the Executive Director, and serves at the pleasure of the Board. (TJPA Bylaws § 9.1.)
Purpose: The Treasure Island Development Authority (TIDA) is a non-profit corporation that was created by the City and County of San Francisco (City) and governed by a Board of Directors. It is controlled by the City with many actions expressly subject to the review and approval of the Board of Supervisors. TIDA promotes planning, redevelopment, reconstruction, rehabilitation, reuse and conversion of the former Naval Station Treasure Island, including Treasure Island and Yerba Buena Island, and all related tide and submerged lands and rights of access, for the public interest, convenience, welfare and common benefit of the inhabitants of the City. (TIDA Bylaws Article III, §1.) TIDA administers the Tidelands Trust as to those portions of Treasure Island and Yerba Buena Island that are subject to the Tidelands Trust. In 1998, the Board of Supervisors designated TIDA as a redevelopment agency under California Community Redevelopment Law. The Board of Supervisors rescinded the designation of TIDA as a redevelopment agency in response to the State’s dissolution of redevelopment agencies. Under Assembly Bill No. X1 26 (Chapter 5, Statutes of 2011-12, First Extraordinary Session) (“AB 26”) and the California Supreme Court’s decision in California Redevelopment Association v. Matosantos, No. S194861, all redevelopment agencies in the State of California were dissolved by operation of law on February 1, 2012. On January 24, 2012, the Board of Supervisors rescinded designation of TIDA as the redevelopment agency for Treasure Island under California Community Redevelopment Law in Resolution No. 11-12. However, such rescission did not affect TIDA’s status as the Local Reuse Authority for Treasure Island or the Tidelands Trust trustee for the portions of Treasure Island subject to the Tidelands Trust, or any of the other powers or authority of TIDA. Therefore, TIDA is not subject to the California Community Redevelopment Law but to the provisions of the Charter and the Administrative Code applicable to City departments.

Members: The Board of Directors consists of one non-voting ex officio director and at least five voting directors but no more than seven voting directors. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 4.) The non-voting director is the member of the Board of Supervisors who represents Treasure Island and Yerba Buena Island. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 4.) The seven voting directors are appointed by the Mayor. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 7.) Directors must be selected based on their expertise in the areas of real estate development, urban planning, environmental protection and resource conservation, homeless assistance, financing, and other disciplines relevant to the reuse of Treasure Island and Yerba Buena Island. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 6.) Appointments of directors, who are officers of the City and County of San Francisco, are effective immediately and remain in effect, unless rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Supervisors within 30 days following the transmittal of written notice to the Board of Supervisors of such appointments. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 7.) Appointments of directors who are not City officers are effective only upon approval by a majority of the Board of Supervisors. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 7.)

Term: Four years, except for the ex officio Board of Supervisors’ director. There are no limits on the number of consecutive terms a director may hold office. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 8.) Any vacancies other than the ex officio director are filled by appointment by the Mayor. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 8.) Directors are not subject to the hold over provisions in Charter § 4.101.5.
Removal: May be removed by the Mayor, with or without cause, at any time. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 9.)
Compensation: None, except for health benefits. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 15.)
Health Benefits: Eligible for health benefits. (TIDA Bylaws Article V, § 15)

Appointment and Removal of Agency Head: Under a Memorandum of Understanding between the City and TIDA, the City currently provides TIDA’s staff, including the Director of Island Operations and the Director of Project Development. Absent such Memorandum of Understanding, the TIDA Board would appoint its Director.
TREASURE ISLAND DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY CITIZENS ADVISORY BOARD
Resolution Nos. 89-99 and 145-05; AB 1496

Purpose: The Treasure Island Development Authority Citizens Advisory Board (TIDA CAB) is purposed to gather public input and opinions from the diverse communities in San Francisco and provide expertise to TIDA. Specifically, TIDA CAB provides recommendations to TIDA concerning the implementation of the Redevelopment Plan for the Treasure Island Naval Station, including policies and objectives for interim reuses, and other matters of importance to the future of Treasure Island and all citizens of San Francisco. (Resolution 89-99) In addition, AB 1496 designates that two seats be filled by residents of Treasure Island or Yerba Buena Island, and two seats by residents of Treasure Island or Yerba Buena Island with low-or-moderate income. The Board of Supervisors appoints one of each from these categories, and the Mayor appoints the others. (AB 1496.)

Term: The term of the initial members was four years, but the Treasure Island Development Authority, by Resolution No. 08-12-03/12, amended its by-laws on March 12 2008, to remove the expiration/termination dates for all members. (Resolution No. 08-12-03/12.)
